

Farmers Plan More Pastures In Food Drive

By J. C. LOWERY

This is the first of two articles on preparation, fertilization, and seeding of pastures. Next month, fertilization and seeding will be discussed in detail.

LABAMA farmers are planning more permanent pastures in an effort to increase livestock and livestock products in the great food for victory campaign underway.

They know that just as feed is the basis for any successful livestock program, a permanent pasture is the basis for any successful feed program. Because of furnishing the most feed at lowest cost, farmers are turning more and more to permanent pastures in an effort to help get the desired increase in milk production, hogs, and marketing of livestock. Indications are that a large acreage will be seeded this spring and a good part of the work in establishing permanent pastures can be and should be done in January.

The first requirement in planning a pasture farmers find is proper location, with fertility and moisture being most important points to consider. In so far as possible, moist, fertile bottom lands should be used; there are plenty of creek bottoms grown up in brush and weeds that can be cleaned off without a great deal of expense or time. If no bottoms are available, heavier soils are desirable. Avoid high, poor, sandy lands as soil that won't grow good crops won't grow good pastures. Good land for pastures just as it takes good land for any other crop.

The next step that can be carried out during the winter is proper clearing of the land. All bushes should be removed leaving enough shade trees on the poorer part of the pasture; trees left on the better land cut down too much on grass production where it grows best.

Thorough and preparation calls for breaking and disking at least two weeks ahead of planting. Surveys made of plantings reveal that 90 percent of the pastures planted on well prepared land were successful, while only 30 percent were successful where no preparation was made. In bottom lands, a good whiz may be used to good advantage. Where lime is to be used it should be disked in immediately after turning; phosphorus is applied just before planting. Lime is used at the rate of one ton on light, sandy soils and on heavier soils at the rate of one to three tons. Five hundred pounds of superphosphate per acre is recommended.

When planning a feed program, a definite system should be worked out, including temporary (small grains and perennials) as well as permanent pastures, thus insuring feed the greatest part of the year at the lowest cost.

Clearing, cleaning up, and preparing for sowing of permanent pasture is going forward in Alabama as farmers plan to use more pastures to produce cheaper livestock feed. Here is shown land being cleared, disked, fertilized, and seeded. J. C. Lowery, Extension agronomist, writes an article on permanent pastures on this page.

AAA Aid

A PAYMENT of three dollars per acre may be earned under the 1942 AAA program for clearing, cleaning up and preparing for the establishment of permanent pasture.

The area approved for this practice must not carry a stand of potential timber of desirable species and the original condition of the land must be such that a satisfactory sod could not be established or the area moved without the removal of brush, vines, loose stumps and trees. Any such clearing as is needed must be done so that the area may be seeded during the 1942 program year in accordance with seeding and fertilization specifications.

Such land after established to a permanent pasture must be capable of carrying one animal unit for each two acres during a pasture season of at least five months.

Fresh Vegetables Are Served Daily

"SERVE four fresh vegetables from my garden everyday as I know the importance of this in our daily diet," says Mrs. J. W. McGouyrk of Tallapoosa County as she tells about her year-round garden.

The fall garden had turnips, mustard, lettuce, spinach, and radishes while there were twenty varieties of vegetables in the spring garden. Not only does she have fresh vegetables the entire year, but Mrs. McGouyrk has an abundance of canned vegetables and fruits.

Army Camp Land To Be Acquired; Work Has Begun

(Ozark Star, January 8)

Confidential proceedings were started Wednesday, January 7th, for the purpose of obtaining immediate possession of all property within the Ozark Triangular Division camp area. All necessary papers were filed in the United States Court at Montgomery by the War Department.

The Court granted the War Department immediate possession of the land and the Real Estate Branch of the War Department, with office in the Post Office Building at Montgomery, was notified by the War Department.

All land owners will be notified by mail when to come to the Real Estate Branch office for the purpose of negotiating the option. It is especially urged by the Real Estate Branch that land owners do not come to the office until they receive written notice and only on the date specified in the written notice.

It is expected that all land owners will be required to vacate their premises by not later than February 7th.

The Real Estate Branch of the War Department located in Ozark the office of Richard L. Dunlap, Jr., who will be Project manager at Camp Tyson. He arrived in Ozark January 1 from Paris, Tenn., where he was Project manager at Camp Tyson. He also served in this capacity at the Huntsville Arsenal.

The Ozark Triangular Division Camp area contains approximately 64,127 acres, 48,627 of which are in Dale County and approximately 15,500 in Coffee County. The Pea River project area consists of 35,072 acres. The Real Estate Branch has approximately 26,055 acres to purchase, according to the most accurate information the State can obtain.

It is understood that the U. S. engineers at Mobile are now conferring with contractors and that contract for the building of a $25,000,000 army camp will be awarded either Friday or Monday.

The cantonment is said to consist of approximately 1,500 buildings to cover approximately 4,600 acres.

Work started Monday morning on the construction of six miles side-track. A. A. Smith, Ray Hart, and Ford was awarded the contract last Saturday for building the spur tracks and by Monday morning had considerable equipment on the job. It is understood that some ten days will be required to complete the spur tracks.

Some 275 farmers are affected by the location of the Army camp in the county.

Surviving besides her son, Dr. W. M. Ringdorf, of Elba, and her daughter, Mrs. Felix Chapman, of Birmingham, are two grandchildren, Marshall, Fraser, and Ben Ringdorf, of Elba; Felix Chapman, Jr., and Ellen Chapman, of Birmingham, and one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Denham, of Berkeley, California.

COFFEE COUNTY TEACHERS STUDY NEW METHODS

The Coffee County teachers held their monthly meeting for study of the new curriculum methods and to transact business of the organization, at Elba High School recently, with A. C. Dunaway, superintendent, and Miss Eunora Farris, elementary supervisor, directing the meeting.

The first period of the session was devoted to group study on the subject of music and how best taught in the schools.

Later the groups joined in general assembly in the school auditorium for a program which opened with songs by the teachers.

The Club, directed by Mrs. A. C. Dunaway, rendered a program of songs, including "Just a Song at Twilight," and "Just a Song at Twilight," with solo part sung by Miss Bette Braxwell and chorus by group.

Dr. I. A. Hammer, of Troy, introduced Dr. Peterson, director of music at Troy Teachers' College, who, assisted by four of his college students, gave a demonstration lesson on "How to Teach Songs."

Another feature of the program was a talk by Mrs. L. E. Farris, of Enterprise, based on her recent trip to Washington in the interest of Coffee County's defense program and in her closing remarks she made a most stirring appeal for patriotism and loyalty to our colors.

Immediately following the program, Carol Peacock, president of the Coffee County Teachers' Association, presided over the business session which consisted of the appointment of the following committee to nominate delegates to the State A. E. A. to be held in Birmingham in March: E. Larkins, Mrs. Vashli Boren and Fred R. Ray; and a vote by the association to pay five cents per member from the treasury toward expense of the district A. E. A.

Funeral for Mrs. Lillian Ringdorf, 75, mother of Dr. W. M. Ringdorf, of Elba, who died early Thursday morning, Jan. 8, following a short illness, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Felix Chapman, in Birmingham.

IMPORTANT MEETING OF FARMERS IN OZARK SAT.

Judge Frank O. Deese, of Dale County, acting for a committee of farmers in the area of the proposed Army Camp to be held in Ozark next Saturday afternoon at two o'clock.

All families living in the area, including both landowners and tenants, will necessarily be evacuated from their homes in the area between the towns of Ozark and Daleville, will have to move out of the area.

According to information already given out, about 500 families are to be moved out of the camp area and these will be seeking new homes. Some, of course, will want to buy farms, others will want to rent and some may want to find employment by the day or month.

The county office at Montgomery has authorized us to go to Ozark next Saturday afternoon at two o'clock.

Under "Land For Rent," several questions were asked, with the following answers: Number of cash tenants; number of plows; rental price per acre for crop lands; number of share tenants; number of plows; how many wage hands on lands; how many work week or colored people; how many plows without land in the county.

The giving of information does not obligate the informant and farmers in need of help are urged to visit the area and contact the people. Those giving information are requested to write the county agents.

CAPTAIN BRYAN WRITES FROM HIS NEW STATION
Kchoe Field, Sebring, Fla., December 6, 1942.

Dear Remo:
As you probably know, I have moved my family down here and expect to keep them as long as I stay myself, so I would like to get my Clipper sent to us. We cannot think of getting along without it for it is the same as a letter from all our friends at one time.

I am very happy to know you are doing a great job with the Red Cross up here and the people are becoming more and more conscious of the value of the Red Cross, especially in a time such as this. I am sure you are fully aware that there is quite a bit of activity in it and if all the folks up there knew just what you were doing they would change their minds.

We are very comfortably situated down here and I think my wife and mother are enjoying it very much. The weather is very pleasant, but living conditions are pretty good, however, that is to be expected, so we will not complain.

We would be very glad to have you and Mrs. Bryan visit us any time, and we believe we could do so. We are always glad to hear from you. May we expect you? With best wishes and kindest regards, I am,

Sincerely yours
DOZIER S. BRYAN,
Capt. Air Corps.

TUBERCULOSIS CAN BE CURED IN ALABAMA

MONTGOMERY.—A person suffering from tuberculosis can be cured as easily in Alabama as "out west," where so many victims of the disease have gone in the past in the hope of improving faster than they could in their home communities, according to a tuberculosis booklet prepared by the State Department of Health.

"There is no known climate which of itself will cure tuberculosis," the booklet states, "but it is possible to make it so, by living in a place where the climate is such that it is expected, so we will not complain."

"By darling, don't know when you're going to get to the Road house dance," said one of the women who were behind her the fragrance of a thousand flowers, excited, intoxicating.

"Of course Dorothy was not going. She only had a dozen invitations a year to go to places with men and women. She had been to the West, memories to be lived over afterward, but by bit, in the lonely evening, she stayed at home while Gladys was out dancing and flirting the hours away."

Head ached as she stepped to pick up the underthings her sister had left lying in a heap on the floor. She only had a dozen invitations a year to go to places with men and women. She had been to the West, memories to be lived over afterward, but by bit, in the lonely evening, she stayed at home while Gladys was out dancing and flirting the hours away."

The Doctor's Prescription

WITH envious eyes Dorothy Keener watched her sister deftly shaping her lips into a carmine cupid's bow with the lipstick she held between her fingers. She leaned closer to the mirror and worked with the care and concentration of an artist painting a picture. This task at last finished her pencilled eyebrows, then turned quickly from the mirror and slipped on a diaphanous, pink dress of lace and georgette.

"Gladys, you're beautiful!" exclaimed Dorothy generously. "Goodness, what I'd give—"

"Stop! Stop! Stop!" she cried abruptly for it was sort of a protest. For this is the story of a woman who had thrown herself since earliest childhood. Certainly she could not make herself beautiful by wishing for it. She could not make men like her and rush her by wishing it. But she could make them love her by wishing it. And she had done so.

"By darling, don't know when you're going to get to the Road house dance," said one of the women who were behind her the fragrance of a thousand flowers, excited, intoxicating.

CAPTAIN BRYAN WRITES FROM HIS NEW STATION
Kchoe Field, Sebring, Fla., December 6, 1942.

Dear Remo:
As you probably know, I have moved my family down here and expect to keep them as long as I stay myself, so I would like to get my Clipper sent to us. We cannot think of getting along without it for it is the same as a letter from all our friends at one time.

I am very happy to know you are doing a great job with the Red Cross up here and the people are becoming more and more conscious of the value of the Red Cross, especially in a time such as this. I am sure you are fully aware that there is quite a bit of activity in it and if all the folks up there knew just what you were doing they would change their minds.

We are very comfortably situated down here and I think my wife and mother are enjoying it very much. The weather is very pleasant, but living conditions are pretty good, however, that is to be expected, so we will not complain.

We would be very glad to have you and Mrs. Bryan visit us any time, and we believe we could do so. We are always glad to hear from you. May we expect you? With best wishes and kindest regards, I am,

Sincerely yours
DOZIER S. BRYAN,
Capt. Air Corps.

FARM TOOL RESOLUTIONS FOR THE YEAR OF 1942

AUBURN, Ala.—J. S. Wilson, extension engineer, suggests the following machinery resolutions for this year:

(a) Plan to lower production costs in 1942 by more efficient use of both labor and machinery.
(b) Make needed repairs on all buildings while you have time.
(c) Take better care of costly equipment by building a shed to keep it in.

(d) Check all farm machinery for needed repairs and order the parts now.
(e) See that all motors or other electrical equipment is in good repair.

Apples contain over eighty per cent water, so add little water when cooking them. A dash of salt improves all apple dishes.

IF YOU NEED GLASSES
It Will Pay You to Wait For BARSON!

After all, it's the examination that counts. Correct, scientific examination of your eyes is the ONLY way to determine whether or not you need glasses. My knowledge in fitting glasses, gained through years of practice, has given me a State-wide reputation. Among your relatives and acquaintances you will find somebody who will tell you how satisfactory my work is.

Because I specialize in this work—scientific examination and proper fitting of glasses—you are assured of complete satisfaction.

We are having some fine weather now for wood saving, butchering and drying—always something to keep farmers busy and contented.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemah Kilcrease are proud of their new baby girl. "The weather was too bad Saturday and Sunday for preaching and prayer meeting."

Mr. Ferrell Danely and Miss Edna Kilcrease were happily married January first.

Mr. and Mrs. Olen Bailey have returned to Camp Blending after spending several days with relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. Dock Carpenter and family have moved to Columbus, Ga. Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Morgan spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Mansford Rayburn.

Mr. Arcus Bryan and family of Columbus, Ga., spent the week end with relatives in this community.

Mr. James Bryan and family spent Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Clark.

Despite the cold weather, recreation party on December 29 was good.

Guess most of us didn't have to make New Year resolutions this time, as we had to use the ones we made last year.

The cold almost froze out the vocational class Monday night. Sorry Mrs. Lillie Carpenter, sick. Hope she will speedily recover.
